CORBETT AND MURPHY---NOT YET, BUT SOON

Wrangle Over Terms by Boys' Managers Put Off Signing of Articles for Present-Meet Again This Afternoon.

Baldwin next week there'll be nothing in sight for him but a fight with All the fight fans around New York and Philadelphia want to see Murphy and Corbett meet, and meet Last night Harry Pollok, manager

Corbett, and Johnny Oliver, for Murphy, met and discussed and argued without coming to an agreement. Harry Edwards, of the National A. C., of Palladelphia, offered 70 per cent. of the gate receipts for the match, Oliver was willing. Pollok had two demands. The first was that the 70 per cent, should be split-40 per cent, to Young Corbett, 30 to Murphy.

HE second was that Oliver should call off the Murphy-Baldwin scrap. Oliver refused the latter Tommy Murphy for two years. demand on the ground that it would be unfair to Baldwin and the club at Chelsea to call that fight off. He refused the first, claiming that Murphy Then Terry landed one of the a better drawing card than Corbett wallops. in Philadelphia. On that account he Curtain for Murphy! in Philadelphia. On that account no couldn't see why he should give Young In spite of that he was really a good Corbett the best of it financially.

Ittle fighter. Undiscouraged, he began very dangerous lightweight, He can make about 127 pounds saily, and so would be giving Corbett first scrap. He lived in Green-point. One night he came over Murphy is a better card in Quaker- winning again. He knocked out Tommy Murphy is a better card in Quakertown. He has fought so many good fights there that he is regarded as a "mative son," and Philadelphians think he can beat Joe Gans.

As for Young Corbett, while he made se splendid fight against McGovern in the Mittional Club a month ago, he hasn't yet proved his return to championship form.

Winning again. He knocked out Tommy Mowatt in two rounds, Benny Vanger in year's time. Now he is broad shouldered, thick muscled and strong. Of knockouts, and over good ones.

If Murphy and Corbett are matched Whatever happens, it'll be a fight.
To-day the managers meet again.
